VI Congress of the Turkic
World Mathematical Society
Astana – Kazakhstan
October 2–5, 2017

Second Announcement of the Turkic World Mathematical Society Congress (TWMS 2017)

Dear colleagues!

The VI Congress of the Turkic World Mathematical Society (TWMS 2017) will be held through October 2-5, 2017 in Astana. The Congress will be organized on the basis of L.N. Gumilyov Eurasian National University.

Traditionally, International Congresses of the Mathematical Society of Turkic World are held once in three years. The main objective of the Congress is expansion of international relations and scientific cooperation between scientists of Turkic world, development of mathematics and application of achievements of mathematics and information technology in scientific research.

The VI Congress TWMS 2017) will include the sections, conference, mini-symposium and workshops. At the Congress there will be plenary lectures of the Congress, plenary lectures of conference and mini-symposiums, oral presentations and poster presentations. The list of sections, conference, mini-symposium and workshops will be presented on the official website of the Congress <http://twms-astana-2017.kz/>. ### Sections of VI International Congress TWMS 2017:

1. Differential equations and equations of mathematical physics.
2. Theory of functions and functional analysis.
3. Algebra, geometry and mathematical logic.
4. Probability theory and mathematical statistics.
5. Optimal control.
6. Mathematical and computer modeling.
7. Information technology.
8. Theoretical and applied mechanics, continuum mechanics.
9. Methods of teaching mathematics and history of mathematics

Conference, mini-symposium and workshops of the Congress:

1. Conference "Functional analysis in interdisciplinary applications", dedicated to the 75th birthday of academician of National Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Kazakhstan Mukhtarbai Otelbaev.

2. Mini-symposium «Inverse and Ill-posed Problems and its applications».
3. Workshop "Non-associative algebras and combinatorics".
4. Workshop «Mathematical Modeling».

By the beginning of the Congress a collection of abstracts will be prepared. The template for registration is published on the official website of the Congress. The amount and terms of payment of the registration fee are published on the official website of the Congress

The official languages of the Congress are English, Kazakh and Russian.

Selected works of the Congress participants will be published in international journals:

- «Eurasian Mathematical Journal» (Astana),
  - «Eurasian Journal of Mathematical and Computer Applications» (Astana),
  - «TWMS Journal of Pure and Applied Mathematics» (Azerbaijan),
  - «Applied and Computational Mathematics» (Azerbaijan),
  - «TWMS Journal of Applied and Engineering Mathematics» (Turkey),
- included in the Web of Science database of Thomson Reuters and Scopus.

The Organizing Committee of the VI Congress of the Turkic World Mathematical Society (TWMS2017) invites you to participate in its work. We invite everyone to register on the official Congress website. There you can register the title of your talk, select Sections, Conference, Mini-symposium or workshops to participate in determine the form of your talk and attach the abstract of the talk (one page, in English).

Please forward this newsletter to all interested scientists.

Important dates:

Deadline for abstract submission:	June 30, 2017
